

NATIONAL WEB-TELECONFERENCE CALLS

Title: Technology and Healthcare—Accessing information at the point of care.

Date: Thursday, January 28, 2010, 12:00 p.m. ET and 3:00 p.m. ET

Presenter: Laura Lutz, MBA, Client Relations Program Manager

Guest Speaker: Scott Ulrich, University—Hospital—Enterprise Sales, Sprint

PARTICIPANTS	GOALS & OBJECTIVES
Hospice Administrators interested in learning more about developments in Health Information Technology and how HP's systems can be accessed from the point of care.	This program will review the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Developments in Health Information Technology and Electronic Health Records- How HP is enhancing it's systems through HP Mobile in order to prepare for this initiative- How HP's mobile program can increase the efficiency of patient visits- How access to HP at the point of care can help to achieve monthly credits- The benefits of HP's partnership with Sprint and how they can be extended to our hospice partners- The status of ePrescribing and the possibility of future development for HP

NO REGISTRATION REQUIRED, JUST JOIN IN!

Log onto Xeris to access the web-teleconference

DIRECTIONS:

Log onto Xeris and click on "Education Materials" in the left navigation bar. Look under the program title to find the following information:

- Toll-free number and access code for joining the audio portion
- Online link to access the web portion
- Program handout (if applicable)

IMPORTANT REMINDER

Programs will start promptly. Login time is 15 minutes before the scheduled start time.

QUESTIONS? CONTACT HP CUSTOMER

SERVICE TEAM FOR QUESTIONS: 1-866-670-8162

hospice pharmacia
a service of excelleRx, Inc.